Program Requirements

1. The LEA must provide a description of the targeted recruitment and selection process which utilizes demonstrated criteria including evidence of measurable student achievement, strong evaluations/appraisals, interpersonal leadership, effective response to observations and feedback, evidence of strategic problem solving, and growth mindset. LEA must also provide their plan for considering the degree to which the diversity of the residents mirrors that of the student population in their recruitment and selection strategy.

Each January, Ector County ISD holds a Principal residents Partnership Seminar to showcase the residency program. Leadership team members refer outstanding teachers who exhibit exemplary content knowledge, instructional capabilities, and leadership traits to attend the event. Ector County ISD leaders are instructed to invite teachers who reflect the diversity of the student population, have documented success working with at-risk youth, have not previously held a principal role, and do not currently hold a principal or mid-management certification. During the event, prospective residents learn about the program and Principal Mentors and Faculty Coaches meet applicants. Teachers who wish to become Principal residents submit an application that summarizes educational background, certification areas, and teaching experience. Collected information also includes a professional resume, letters of recommendation from current supervisors, and current examples of student progress and success. The team then screens the information to consider evidence for each candidate's leadership capacity based on five admission standards specified by the TEA: (1) Evidence of Measurable Student Achievement -The search team utilizes Edugence student data (CIRCLE, TPRI, STAAR, and Ector County ISD 9 Week Test scores) to determine the candidate's record as it pertains to student achievement and growth. Candidates with strong evidence of success with traditionally low performing student groups are given the highest ratings; (2) Strong Evaluations and Appraisals - A review of formative and summative T-TESS evaluation rubrics over a 3 year period is conducted to determine each teacher's strengths and weaknesses. Highest ratings are given to candidates with distinguished achievement in Planning and Instruction domains; (3) Interpersonal Leadership: Letters of recommendation from Ector County ISD leaders and T-TESS Learning Environment and Professional Practices domains are reviewed to determine excellence in working with students and peers; (4) Effective response to Observations & feedback T-TESS and walk-through observation scores are reviewed to determine improvement. In areas targeted for growth; and (5) Growth Mindset - Resumes and cover letters are reviewed to determine leadership roles previously held by the potential candidate.

2. Provide a description of the year-long, full-time residency that includes the following opportunities for the resident: a) sustained and rigorous clinical learning in an authentic school setting; b) substantial leadership responsibilities such as the ability to address and resolve a significant problem/challenge in the school that influences practice and student learning; c) the skills needed to establish and support effective and continuous professional development with assigned teaching staff; d) the ability to facilitate stakeholders' efforts to build a collaborative team within the school to improve instructional practice, student achievement, and the school culture, e) how the district and EPP will support the candidate's gradual release of responsibility, and f) provide frequent short cycle coaching related to intentionally designed learning experiences.

Each Principal Fellow will be employed in a paid campus position and complete rigorous clinical learning experiences under the guidance of a ECISD Principal Mentor and a TTU Faculty Coach. AUTHENTIC LEARNING: The Master of Educational Leadership is a 36-hour program including 30 hours of core content and a 6-hour principal internship. The Educational Leadership faculty at TTU designed course curriculum, job-embedded leadership opportunities, and assessment measures to meet skill requirements of the 268 Identified Integrated Pillars. During the summer, Fellows will attend a Summer Institute and complete 6 hours of graduate courses. Fellows will then begin the internship at a ECISD campus and complete 30 hours of graduate coursework. Course content will be provided by TTU faculty through synchronous virtual group learning. Program Requirements (Cont.)

3. The LEA must provide a description of Data-Driven Instruction systems currently implemented at campus level and complete the Leverage Leadership Readiness Assessment: Data-Driven Instruction provided in Attachment 1.

Ector County ISD is committed to ongoing student growth through the use of data-driven instructional practices. Teachers at all grade levels and in all content areas continually assess their students using both formative and summative tools. These assessments run the gamut from quick "ticket out the door" daily checks to district-administered short-cycle assessments and semi-annual STAAR benchmarks. ECISD also administers the NWEA Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) assessments, a series of nationally-normed tests which analyze students' academic growth in math and reading. All student assessment data is collected and summarized in electronic form for use by our collaborative teacher teams. ECISD campuses have committed to a Professional Learning Community (PLC) model in which teacher teams are provided structured time, during the school day, to analyze data, revise curriculum, and design student intervention and extension activities. Each team is allotted a minimum of 45 minutes per week for this work, with targeted, high-need teams receiving up to four periods of PLC planning time each week. Nearly all ECISD schools have robust systems in place to disaggregate data by student subpopulation and have developed intentional measures to support under-performing students. Our teachers are supported by district administrators, campus administrators, and instructional coaches, who are all trained in Paul Bambrick-Santoyo's "See It, Name It, Do It" strategy. These individuals utilize data rooms and best practice exemplars to model data disaggregation and curriculum revision for each of our teacher teams. In accordance with well-known, high-leverage strategies, PLC teams regularly review student data, analyze actual student work product, compare with an exemplar, identify learning gaps, plan for the reteach lesson, and rehearse to garner feedback. The overarching goal is to make student data both visible and actionable. By consistently implementing these data-driven instructional practices, ECISD continues to foster a student-centered culture, focused on learning, in alignment with our "The Future Is Now" strategic plan.

4. The LEA must provide a description of Observation and Feedback systems currently implemented at campus level and complete the Leverage Leadership Readiness Assessment: Observation and Feedback provided in Attachment 1.

In addition, ECISD principal mentors will have completed the full-year Relay GSE training. All campus leaders who have not yet completed the full training have participated in an overview session and are active participants in the on-going observation/feedback cycle. Principal supervisors also utilize the Relay rubric in order to deliver feedback to principals during weekly campus visits. In an effort to expand their reach, campus principals have created Instructional Leadership Teams (ILTs) made up of both campus administrators and instructional coaches who regularly observe classrooms and provide feedback to a select group of teachers. These "coaching divisions" ensure that each teacher is assigned to an individual coach, with whom they develop a strong relationship. Coaches both deliver and track instructional feedback throughout the school year, including weekly action steps. Finally, ECISD recently partnered with the National Institute for Excellence in Teaching (NIET) in order to provide training to all of our teacher observers regarding effective evaluation practices, and to calibrate classroom walk-through and observation feedback ratings across all ECISD campuses. Principal supervisors will continue this calibration work throughout the school year.

5. The LEA must provide a description of a sustainability plan for the continuation of the Principal Residency Program.

ECISD and the Talent Development Department will oversee the continuation of the Principal Residency Program with Texas Tech University. The Talent Development Department will pursue available funds through appropriate funding sources in the foreseeable future to go before the Board of Trustees. ECISD and the Talent Development Department will continue the program based on fund availability. It is the goal of ECISD to advocate for the inclusion of Principals as a viable apprenticeship model within the US Department of Labor.

6. The LEA must provide a clear description of a proposed communication system between the EPP team and key district players.

ECISD proposes to identify the key stakeholders within the district and EPP. One grant manager will be identified at the district and one point of contact will be identified at the EPP. The grant manager and EPP point of contact will communicate regularly via email as needs arise. In addition, quarterly governance meetings between all principal residency stakeholder will be conducted where a shared agenda will be utilized to ensure the needs of all stakeholders are addressed. The resident, mentor principal, and grant manager will serve as key stakeholders for ECISD. The TTU faculty member and coach will serve as the point of contact for Texas Tech University.
