				RLA:
				Science:

Students for whom the LPAC recommends Content and Language Supports or Oral Administration for any English RLA assessment may not be considered for reclassification at the end of the school year.

[†]The LPAC may make decisions on the language of a student’s assessment. However, if a student needs accommodations on a STAAR assessment in Spanish, that decision must be made by another committee or appropriate team at the campus level, in conjunction with the LPAC, as noted in each accommodations policy document.

PART II: TELPAS Participation² and Accommodations Decisions

Assessment	Participation
TELPAS	The student will take the general Texas English Language Proficiency Assessment System (TELPAS) in all four language domains.
	The ARD committee, in conjunction with the LPAC, has determined that the student will not be assessed in one or more of the four language domains, as noted in the student's individualized education program (IEP).
	The ARD committee, in conjunction with the LPAC, has determined that the student will receive accommodations, as noted in the student's IEP.
	The ARD committee, in conjunction with the LPAC, has determined that the student will have a special administration of an assessment, as noted in the student's IEP or 504 paperwork.
TELPAS Alternate	The ARD committee, in conjunction with the LPAC, has determined that the student meets the TELPAS Alternate eligibility criteria and will be assessed with TELPAS Alternate, as noted in the student's IEP.

²For EB students in kindergarten through grade 2 who do not have ARD or Section 504 committees, the LPAC is not required to meet to determine participation decisions regarding unmodified English language proficiency assessments.

PART III: LPAC Notes

Use the section below to record any other information pertinent to the assessment administration, including designated supports requiring Texas Education Agency approval or accommodations requested by a committee other than the LPAC.

PART IV: Signatures of Designated LPAC Members

These signatures affirm that the decisions recorded have been made by the LPAC in full accordance with state policies and procedures.

LPAC Dates:

In addition to keeping this form in the student’s permanent record file, the LPAC may provide a copy of Parts I and II of the form to the testing coordinator to ensure that the student is administered the correct assessment and provided the correct accommodations.
