Chapter 97. Planning and Accountability

Subchapter AA. Accountability and Performance Monitoring

§97.1001. Accountability Rating System.

- (a) The rating standards established by the commissioner of education under Texas Education Code (TEC), §39.051(c) and (d) (as that section existed before amendment by House Bill 3, 81st Texas Legislature, 2009), shall be used to evaluate the performance of districts, campuses, and charter schools. The indicators, standards, and procedures used to determine ratings under both standard and alternative education accountability (AEA) procedures will be annually published in official Texas Education Agency publications. These publications will be widely disseminated and cover the following procedures:
 - (1) indicators, standards, and procedures used to determine district ratings;
 - (2) indicators, standards, and procedures used to determine campus ratings;
 - indicators, standards, and procedures used to determine acknowledgment on Additional Indicators;
 and
 - (4) procedures for submitting a rating appeal.
- (b) The standard and alternative procedures by which districts, campuses, and charter schools are rated and acknowledged for 2010 are based upon specific criteria and calculations, which are described in excerpted sections of the 2010 Accountability Manual provided in this subsection.

- (c) Ratings may be revised as a result of investigative activities by the commissioner as authorized under TEC, $39.074 and $39.075 (as those sections existed before amendment by House Bill 3, 81st Texas Legislature, 2009).
- (d) The specific criteria and calculations used in the accountability manual are established annually by the commissioner of education and communicated to all school districts and charter schools.
- (e) The specific criteria and calculations used in the annual accountability manual adopted for school years prior to 2010-2011 remain in effect for all purposes, including accountability, data standards, and audits, with respect to those school years.

Statutory Authority: The provisions of this §97.1001 issued under the Texas Education Code, §§39.051(c)-(d), 39.072(c), 39.0721, 39.073, and 29.081(e), as those sections existed before amendment by HB 3, 81st Texas Legislature, 2009.

§97.1004. Adequate Yearly Progress.

(a) In accordance with the federal No Child Left Behind Act and Texas Education Code, §§7.055(b)(32), 39.073, and 39.075, as these sections existed before amendment by House Bill 3, 81st Texas Legislature, 2009, all public school campuses, school districts, and the state are evaluated for Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). Districts, campuses, and the state are required to meet AYP criteria on three measures: reading/English language arts, mathematics, and either graduation rate (for high schools and districts) or attendance rate (for elementary and middle/junior high schools). The performance of a school district, campus, or the state is reported through indicators of AYP status established by the commissioner of education.

§97.1005. Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System.

- (a) In accordance with Texas Education Code, §7.028(a), the purpose of the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System (PBMAS) is to report annually on the performance of school districts and charter schools in selected program areas: bilingual education/English as a Second Language, career and technical education, special education, and certain Title programs under the federal No Child Left Behind Act. The performance of a school district or charter school is reported through indicators of student performance and program effectiveness and corresponding performance levels established by the commissioner of education.
- (b) The assignment of performance levels for school districts and charter schools in the 2009 PBMAS is based on specific criteria and calculations, which are described in excerpted sections of the PBMAS 2009 Manual provided in this subsection.
